

Facilities

The NOR'EASTERS Softball Camp takes place on the scenic campus of the University of New England. Campers will practice and play on our New All Turf Softball field that is located adjacent to the Alfond Forum.

Equipment

All Campers should bring the following equipment:

- Batting Helmet
- Glove
- Bat
- Cleats or Turf Shoes
- Catchers must bring their own gear

Camp Overview

This camp will provide the players with both offensive & defensive instruction. We will focus on the proper mechanics for hitting, bunting and slap hitting. After you go through a sample of a Nor'Easter practice you will be split into two teams where you will be placed in a controlled scrimmage. It is here where you will be coached on the defensive fundamentals of the game. While learning how to read what the opposing team is giving you.

University of New England Prospect Camp

October 5, 2019

9am – 2pm

University of New England
630 Pool Street
2 Nor'easter Way
Biddeford, ME

Welcome to the UNE Softball Prospect Camp! We are very excited to offer this Softball Camp to you in one of the seasonal hot spots in Southern Maine. You will learn from experienced and knowledgeable collegiate coaches as well as current college players. We will cover position specific skills and game situations.

Clinic Director

The UNE Softball Prospect Camp is directed by UNE Head Softball Coach, Dan Letellier. Coach Letellier has led the UNE softball team for ten years, highlighted by the program's second Commonwealth Coast Conference (CCC) title in 2012 and a berth into the NCAA Championship. Big Blue finished that year with a 27-14 mark, which included a four-game sweep through the CCC Championship. The Nor'easters then became the second team in University history to win a game at the NCAA level, following only the softball squad from 2000.

During the latter stages of the 2018 season, Letellier recorded his 200th career victory in game number 345, and now stands with a 229-166-2 coaching mark (.579). The Nor'easters are 124-64 (.666) in CCC contests under his direction.
